Organisational Management T-kit

Welcome to the T-Kit series

Some of you may have wondered: what does T-kit mean? We can offer at least two answers. The first is as simple as the full version in English: "Training Kit". The second has more to do with the sound of the word that may easily recall "Ticket", one of the travelling documents we usually need to go on a journey. So, on the cover, the little figure called "Spiffy" holds a train ticket to go on a journey to discover new ideas. In our imagination, this T-kit is a tool that each of us can use in our work. More specifically, we would like to address youth workers and trainers and offer them theoretical and practical tools to work with and use when training young people.

The T-kit series has been the result of a one-year collective effort involving people from different cultural, professional and organisational backgrounds. Youth trainers, youth leaders in NGOs and professional writers have worked together in order to create high quality publications which would address the needs of the target group while recognising the diversity of approaches across Europe to each subject.

This T-kit is part of a series of 4 titles first published in the year 2000, to be followed by more in subsequent years. It is one of the products of the Partnership Programme on Youth Worker Training run by the European Commission and the Council of Europe. Besides the T-kits, the partnership between the two institutions has resulted in other areas of co-operation such as training courses, the magazine "Coyote" and a dynamic internet site.

To find out more about developments in the partnership (new publications, training course announcements, etc.) or to download the electronic version of the T-kits, visit the Partnership web site: www.training-youth.net.

Council of Europe publishing
F-67075 Strasbourg Cedex

© Council of Europe and European Commission, July 2000

Reproduction of material from this publication is authorised for non-commercial educational purposes only, provided the source is quoted.

This document does not necessarily express the official view of the European Commission or the Council of Europe, their member states or the organisations co-operating with the institutions.

Coordination T-kit series:
Silvio Martinelli

Editors of this T-kit:
Silvio Martinelli, Jonathan Bowyer

Authors of this T-kit: (see also last page)
Jonathan Bowyer
Arthur Murphy
Paola Bortini
Rosa Gallego Garcia

Editorial Committee
Bernard Abrignani
Institut National de la Jeunesse et de l'Education Populaire
Elisabeth Hardt
European Federation for Intercultural Learning
Esther Hookway
Lingua Franca
Carol-Ann Morris
European Youth Forum
Heather Roy
World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts

Secretariat
Sabine Van Migem (Administrative support)
Genevieve Woods (Librarian)

Cover Page and Spiffy Character
The Big Family

A special thank is also due to:
Patrick Penninckx for having co-ordinated the launch of T-kit series, provided continuous support and ensured the link with the other projects of the Partnership Agreement.
Anne Cosgrove and Lena Kalibataite for the contribution given in the first phase of the project.

All the publishers and authors that have given permission to reproduce their copyrighted material.

Last, but not least, all the people that in different capacities, at different moments and in different ways have contributed to make all this possible!

TRAINING-YOUTH

Council of Europe
DG IV
Directorate of Youth and Sport

European Youth Centre Strasbourg
30 Rue Pierre de Coubertin
F-67000 Strasbourg, France
Tel: +33-3-8841 2300 – Fax: +33-3-8841 2777

European Youth Centre Budapest
Zivatar ucta 1-3
H-1024 Budapest, Hungary
Tel: +36-1-2124078 – Fax: +36-1-2124076

European Commission
DG Education and Culture
Unit D5: Youth Policy and Programme

Rue de la Loi, 200
B-1049 Brussels, Belgium
Tel: +32-2-295 1100 – Fax: +32-2-299 4158

Contents

Introduction 7

1. Environment: the context and culture of European Youth Organisations 9

1.1 Introduction 9

1.2 The historical context 11

1.3 Organisational culture 12

1.3.1 What is culture? 12

1.3.2 Organisational styles 14

2. Managing self 19

2.1 Introduction 19

2.2 Personal awareness 19

2.2.1 Learning to learn 19

2.2.2 Experiential learning and learning styles 19

2.2.3 Emotional learning 23

2.2.4 Learning to think 24

2.2.5 Prejudice 25

2.3 Managing your personal resources 27

2.3.1 From competence to professionalism 27

2.3.2 Self-motivation 28

2.3.3 Managing time 29

2.3.4 Managing stress 32

2.3.5 Managing communication 35

2.3.6 Managing change 36

3. Managing people 43

3.1 Introduction 43

3.2 Teams and leaders 43

3.2.1 Teamworking and leadership 43

3.2.2 Motivating people 49

3.2.3 Empowerment 51

3.2.4 Responsibility 51

3.3 Training, development and assessment 51

3.3.1 The learning organisation 51

3.3.2 Learning styles 53

3.3.3 Assessment of performance and work review 53

3.4 Coaching, mentoring and counselling 54

3.4.1 Coaching 54

3.4.2 Mentoring 56

3.4.3 Counselling 58

4. The management of processes 61

4.1 Introduction 61

4.2 Managing the organisation 61

4.2.1 Management structure 62

4.3 Systems management 64

4.4 Organisation development (OD) 65

4.5 Decision making and policy development 66

4.6 Communication and information 67

4.7 Knowledge and learning 69

4.8 Strategic planning 71

4.8.1 Why planning is important? 71

4.8.2 What is strategic planning? 71

4.8.3 Strategic planning steps 72

4.9 Financial management 76

4.9.1 Budget 76

4.9.2 The balance sheet 78

4.9.3 The income and expenditure statement 78

4.9.4 Cash flow statements 78

4.10 Contracting 78

4.11 Terms and conditions of employment 78

4.12 Managing external relations 79

Appendix 1: Historical and contemporary perspectives of management 81

Appendix 2: Organisational management T-KIT evaluation 85

Appendix 3: References and further reading 87