

I'm sorry, I have now realised how important equality and democracy is and we must work together to create a better environment in this school.

