

You have the right to choose which way is the best for your entertainment.

Try not to fight on a argue with the others, it's better to have close friends to communicate.

Every child has the right to be educated. kid's work is forbidden.

It's necessary parents to give love and to understand their children. Punishment has negative results.

Nutrition is very important for kids upbringing development.

Parents and children should make an effort for discussion.

Give up racism in every aspect of your life.

Express your emotions to people you trust (parents, friends, teachers).

