

Symposium: Young people, democracy and climate action

24-26 September 2024, European Youth Centre Strasbourg, France

23 September	Day 1 - 24 September	Day 2 - 25 September	Day 3 - 26 September
Arrivals	Exploring the complexity	Understanding the action	Looking forward
	Plenary session: Setting the stage Welcoming speeches by: the Director General of Democracy and Human Dignity, Council of Europe (TBC), a representative of the European Commission and the Chair of the Advisory Council on Youth — Getting to know the group	Plenary moment Where do we find motivation for action? 2nd parallel thematic working groups What has been done by different actors (policy/practice/research)?	Keynote speech Young people and the future of climate justice (Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights) — 4th parallel thematic working groups What is needed (competences, capacities, policy) to move forward?
	Break
	Keynote speeches Setting the frame: From climate crisis to climate justice Digesting and reacting to the inputs	3rd parallel thematic working groups Systemic view: What is emerging? Sensing/understanding changing ways of engaging with climate justice	Plenary session Insights and findings from the Symposium — Institutional closing Matjaž Gruden, Council of Europe, representatives of the European Commission and the European Youth Forum
	Lunch
	Registration	1st parallel thematic working groups Where are we? Mapping ways of engaging with the climate crisis/justice.	Plenary session What are the ways forward? What actions are needed? — Launch of the Youth Knowledge Book #31
Break
Plenary session Interlinking the main outcomes Announcements and closing of the day		Climate Action Fair Sharing projects, initiatives, resources
Self-organised dinner	Dinner at the EYCS	Reception and Dinner at the EYCS	