

- Alliance of Youth Workers Associations (AYWA) - March 18, 2024, in Brussels
- 10 members - National Associations of Youth Workers from Malta, Serbia, Italy, North Macedonia, Czech Republic, Greece, Portugal, Estonia, Hungary and Netherlands

Youth Work Developments in Serbia

- Permanent expert team for the implementation of the Bonn Process; 16 representatives (since May 2021)

- Political recognition:

Youth Strategy 2023-2030;

Action Plan of the Youth Strategy 2023-2026;

New Law on Youth

Youth work in Youth Guarantee

- Formal recognition

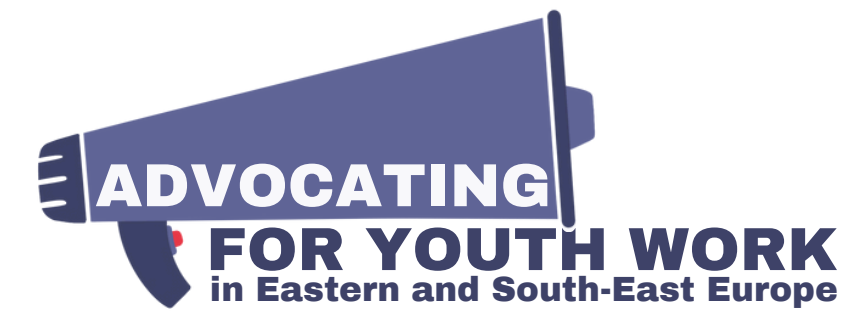

Occupational standard

Qualification standard (level V and VII in NQF)

Revision of the NFE multi-modular education Curricula for youth workers

Youth Work Developments in Serbia

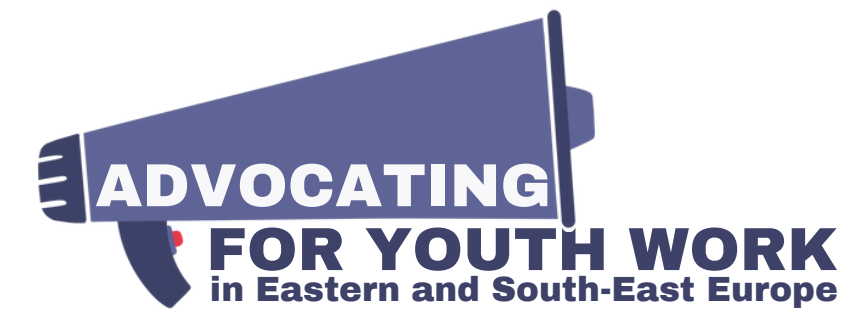

- Standards for youth centers and youth clubs in national legislation through wide consultative process
- Recognition of the youth work by other sectors (education, culture, social welfare, employment, etc.)
- National program for digital youth work and work with youth
- National standardised youth work program for Youth Mental health
- Youth work in cultural institutions
- Rural youth work
- Mobilisation of parents for increasing youth work recognition
- Measuring youth work impact at personal and social level

....

Support to national processes

Growing youth work - NA Germany

- Bonn Process Coffee Talks
- Bonn Process Exchange Forum on National Processes Bonn
- Bonn Process Meet-up

