

About the editors and contributors

Alper Akyüz

co-author

Alper Akyüz works as a trainer (conventional and distance learning) and training co-ordinator at Istanbul Bilgi University, NGO Training and Research Centre, and as instructor for two undergraduate courses, one being Social Responsibility Projects, and the other Non-profit Organisations and Capacity Building, in the same university.

a.alper.akyuz@gmail.com

Anne Sophie Winkelmann

co-author

A freelance trainer, scientist and researcher living in Berlin, Anne Sophie Winkelmann specialises in diversity-based intercultural education and anti-discrimination work in (international) youth work and adult education.

annewinkelmann@bapob.de

Asuman Göksel

editor and co-author

Former national co-ordinator of the Euro-Mediterranean Youth Action Programme on behalf of Turkey (1999-2003), Asuman Göksel is affiliated to the Middle East Technical University as a member of the academic staff and Katholieke Universiteit Leuven as a PhD candidate. He works on social policy studies and is also involved, as researcher and expert, in international projects such as QUING – Quality in Gender+ Equality Policies, and Studies on Youth Policies in Mediterranean Partner Countries.

agoksel@metu.edu.tr

Burcu Meltem Arik

co-author

Burcu Meltem Arik is a trainer and writer based in Istanbul, dedicated to nature and a specialist in environmental education, nature interpretation and project management.

Cécile Barbeito

co-author

Cécile Barbeito works as a peace education trainer at the research centre School for a Culture of Peace, specialising in experiential learning methodologies applied to peace education, education in and for conflict, intercultural learning (image of the enemy) and global education (especially disarmament and human rights).

cecile.barbeito@uab.es

Ellie Keen

editor and co-author

Ellie has vast experience in human rights work and human rights education. She has worked with Amnesty International for several years, was a writer and editor of Compass and Companion, and has adapted other educational materials. She has also been involved in Euro-Mediterranean training activities on human rights education.

Heidi Ness

co-author

A freelance trainer and consultant, Heidi has specialised in international projects with youth and adults. She has developed methodic-didactic materials for education in democratic citizenship.

heidiness@bapob.de, heidi.ness@xhoch3.com

Henrietta Szovati

co-author

Based in London, Henrietta is a freelance trainer, educator and MA specialising in multicultural learning, communication and faith issues. She is the Head of Research and Development for Communities in Action Enterprise.

Jana El Horr

co-author

Jana El Horr is a freelance trainer and doctoral candidate in conflict resolution based in Washington, DC, and specialising in human rights, intercultural learning, conflict resolution, group facilitation, political organising and grassroots campaigning.

janahorr@gmail.com

Katrin Alban

co-author

As a freelance trainer and consultant, Katrin specialises in intercultural learning, education for democratic citizenship and inclusion of young people with fewer opportunities.

katrinalban@intercultural-life.com

Miguel Ángel García López

co-author

Miguel works as freelance consultant and evaluator, and as a resource person on European Studies. Some of his fields of expertise are: citizenship education, training trainers, intercultural learning, human rights education, gender, Euro-Mediterranean youth work, participation, ecumenism and inter-religious dialogue.

Patricia Brander

editor

Working as a freelance consultant on training in human rights, intercultural education and environmental education, and based in Denmark, Patricia has recently been developing training courses to help immigrants integrate into the labour market.

Rui Gomes

editor and co-author

Head of Education and Training, Directorate of Youth and Sport of the Council of Europe, and now based at the European Youth Centre Budapest, Rui Gomes has been co-ordinating the Youth programme of human rights education and intercultural dialogue, and also the Euro-Mediterranean youth co-operation, intercultural dialogue and human rights education strand of the Youth Partnership.

Susanne E. Shomali

co-author

As well as being a freelance consultant in project management and training, covering issues related to adult education, youth participation, intercultural learning, human rights education and sustainable development, Susanne is a TATEM participant, employed by Save the Children in Jordan, in her capacity as Programme Manager for a youth education-in-emergencies programme, and by the Regional Capacity Building Support Unit (RCBS) of the Euromed Youth Programme as Short-term Expert.

sshomali@web.de

Tala Bassam Momani

co-author

A graduate in Environmental Sciences and Natural Resource Management, Tala Momani has extensive experience in various environmental projects as well as in advocating environmental issues. At the time of writing, she was working for Friends of the Earth Middle East, in charge of the project Good Water Neighbours.