FOUR

PROVOCATIONS

provocation #1

o my body, make of me always a man who questions!

provocation #2

act as you if you were not free.

provocation #3

act as if you did not exist. #seriality

provocation #4

i would prefer not to. #interpassivity

PROVOCATION #1

- the narrative of digital innovation & technological entrepreneurship: signifiers
 - free individual talent;
 - create new jobs, new opportunities, new economy;
 - create its own myths.

"Amazon was founded in the garage of Bezos' rented home in Washington"

"Page and Brin started Google in a garage rented by them—along with three other rooms—while they were still living at the dorms of Stanford University"

"Jobs built his Apple empire in the garage of his parents' house"

"Gates and Allen developed Microsoft in Seattle's Albuquerque two-car garage"

PROVOCATION #1

- from signifiers to excess:
 - access to elite education;
 - access to seed funding;
 - ethno-cultural particularities.
- oppressive structures:
 - economic inequality;
 - lack of women's access to privileges & power;
 - neocolonial practices.

PROVOCATION #2

- (un)freedom...
 - of choice;
 - to work from anywhere;
 - to follow one's own passions;
 - and so on.
- gig economy:
 - precarious work;
 - fragmentation of the working contract;
 - continuous surviving and competition;
 - meta-exploitation.

PROVOCATION #3

- seriality:
 - j. p. sartre: group vs. series;
 - people \neq subjects;
 - people = (statistical) numbers;
 - filtering, chats, hashtags, etc..
- ai seriality:
 - social media & search engine ai;
 - cambridge analytica;
 - ai facial recognition;
 - bio-surveillance (#covid19);
 - taking over public institutions
(e.g. education, youth policy, etc.).

PROVOCATION #4

- interpassivity:
 - r. pfaller: interpassivity theory;
 - netflix, spotify, etc.;
 - youtube, the great radicalizer;
 - participation?
